WELCOME TO STONECLIFFE

To some it is simply a roof with four walls, a place to sleep at night and a shelter from the elements. To others, it is a haven of tranquillity, where love and relaxation flow through the living space.

Despite all differences, one thing holds true - a home is how you define it. It is the foundation for the beginning and end of each day. It is the place where dreams are inspired and loved ones are cherished. It is the place to create memories and showcase accomplishments. It is where families come together to celebrate, eat, converse and live.

The heart of any Ridgeview Home is designed by its quality and modern amenities. No matter how you envision your Ridgeview Home, we always showcase the best of our home plans to help you choose your dream home.

Our expert team offers a diverse skill set to provide you with a superior home design, industry knowledge and the highest standard of customer service.

Welcome home.

THE TORRES

The Torres del Paine National Park is located within the Patagonia region of Chile. It is known for its soaring mountains, icebergs, views of glaciers, cliffs, and golden pampas.

The Torres house plan, presented by Ridgeview Homes pays homage to the peaks, and sharp vertical elements seen within the National Park.

Incorporating large vertical windows on the exterior, with an open to above kitchen and living room, The Torres is able to provide the feeling of openness, internally.

Striking, sharp, and suited for new ventures.

THE OIA

Formed by volcanic action, Santorini is well-known for its cliff-hanging villages and legendary sunsets. While being home to several villages, the most famous are Oia and Fira, which cling to cliff sides overlooking the sea.

Oia is the more intimate out of the two, that is well nestled for cozy lifestyles.

The Oia house plan presented by Ridgeview Homes pays homage to the togetherness and romance as experienced in Santorini, all while being catered towards the emotions felt in Oia.

Intimate, affable, and designed to upspring.

THE FIRA

Formed by volcanic action, Santorini is well-known for its cliff-hanging villages and legendary sunsets. While being home to several villages, the most famous are Oia and Fira, which cling to cliff sides overlooking the sea.

The Fira house plan presented by Ridgeview Homes pays homage to the liveliness, luxury, and entertainment one can experience in Fira.

Incorporating a balcony from the master bedroom, large cathedral like windows, and a segmented flow throughout the house, both the Oia and Fira are catered for active lifestyles.

Exciting, alive, and filled with new memories.

THE MOHER

The Cliffs of Moher are sea cliffs located at the southwestern edge of Ireland. They are known for their diverse environment that is home to an abundance of living species, and different types of flora. The cliffs make up a large coastline, that include rolling hills, steep peaks, all in which account for a lively scenery.

The Moher house plan, presented by Ridgeview Homes pays homage to the Cliffs of Moher by incorporating diverse structures, and having an overall reverberating flow inside and out. The front profile is able to resemble the chiseled coastline, whereas the side profile represents the rolling topography.

Overall, The Moher is able to incorporate the magnitude of the Cliffs of Moher by having an organic balance between vertical peaks, and horizontal elegance.

Structured, organized, yet ambiguous.

THE MITRE

Mitre Peak is in New Zealand within the Fiordland National Park and is said to be the worlds highest sea cliff. It is approximately 5,560 feet high with a strong vertical emphasis. Despite being a collective set of five different peaks, one main peak has the clearest exposure and is sharply defined.

The Mitre house plan presented by Ridgeview Homes explores different heights and sleek rooflines, while also having one clearly aligned peak. This allows for a focused focal point from the exterior, resulting in an architectural symmetry.

Precise, bold, and curated for a balanced lifestyle.
